

Lead Like You Ride (LLYR) is a highly interactive, fun training experience. LLYR will give you the skills and knowledge to use the same leadership principles we use when we ride to help you lead your Chapter and District. We can use these same principles and tools to improve our own personal and professional lives. We plan rides on our motorcycles, so why not plan our chapter lives in a similar way!

What is Lead Like You Ride?

LLYR is a one-day training event that focuses on increasing your knowledge, skills and awareness in the following areas:

Learning how to Lead "Intentionally" – deliberately, with purpose and on purpose

Learning how to keep our GWRRA life positive, open and Intentional

Understanding the differences between reactions and responses

Understanding the 6 different hats we wear as Leaders, then putting that knowledge to work using the appropriate hats at the appropriate times

Becoming outcome focused and vision based

Learning how to ask the right questions

Learning how to use exciting tools to help you in your leadership role:

"The 5 whys"

"The Double Triangle"

"Decision Circle"

Learning how to define and create common language

Learning how to use emotional intelligence in problem solving

Understanding the difference between Management and Leadership and applying this knowledge at the appropriate situations

Understanding "Mindset" and perspectives

Learning how and where to look for indicators of success in your chapters

Interacting and sharing like experiences with your peers and friends

Plan on joining Instructor Mike Briggs for this rare opportunity to be a part of Lead Like You Ride!
